for Abdulla Khan, who had by then been twice imprisoned and having relinquished his right in favour of his younger brother Yahia Khan

It is now reported that Yahia Khan died on 29th March 1904 "leaving no legal heirs except his elder brother Abdulla Khan alias Kharim Khan" though according to the Mahazar there seems to be a sister besides, by name - Bibi Khath

It is a point for consideration and orders, if the Stipend can be continued in favour of a person who once before had relinquished his claim to it and who happens to have been convicted more than once, notwithstanding the hereditary character of this Sarjapur Jaghir Family. The Stipend The Deputy Commissioner makes no specific recommendation for its continuance but sends a descriptive roll, & marks of identification of Abdulla whom for the issue of the pension order in his name -
